

NEW LAND FRAUDS UNDER INVESTIGATION BY THE GOVERNMENT

Reported That Ballinger May Make Startling Disclosures of False Claims for New Alaska Territory.

By Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 22.—The investigation of suspected land frauds in Alaska, which may exceed in scope the startling developments of the famous Cunningham cases, is believed to be in progress, guided by the federal officials of the northwest, according to the Chronicle. The investigation, which is stated to involve an entirely new group of claims, and charges similar to those brought against the Cunningham entries, are believed to have been instituted and actively pushed by Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, who is believed to be anxious to clear his department of the stigma considered to have attached as a result of the Cunningham and Glavis episodes. The first entries involved is said to include many prominent men of Spokane, as well as others of national importance. Developments are expected within the next few days which, it is believed, will explain the long silence of Ballinger under the sting of the Glavis charges, as well as the attitude of Taft toward the much-criticized secretary of the interior.

GAYNOR MAY BE NEXT MAYOR OF NEW YORK

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Gaynor sentiment took the form of assumed direction in Democratic circles here today more rapidly than at any time since his name came to the front as a possible candidate for governor. State Chairman Dix brought word how large the figure of the mayor looked from a distance, but until today the New York leaders have been reticent. It was announced at the Democratic state headquarters today that the temporary chairman at the Rochester convention would be Alton Parker.

MACNAMARA HAS HIGH GRADE VEIN ON 800 LEVEL

EIGHTY DOLLAR ORE IS ENCOUNTERED WITH VALUES HALF IN GOLD.

Within the last few days MacNamara stock has crept up two points, and according to the present appearances of the mine, this advance is only a forerunner of a jump that is bound to come before many weeks pass by. One of the most important developments chronicled by this company happened several days ago, when the drift that is being sent through the huge quartz ledge on the 800-foot level encountered a high-grade body of ore one foot in width. The quartz ledge is about 40 feet in width according to the drift, and carries low-grade milling values. The high-grade streak will assay $80 to the ton, and the strange part of the strike is that fully one-half of the value is in gold. This is something out of the ordinary, for in all the Tonopah mines, the values heretofore have been two-thirds in silver and one-third in gold. This is also true with respect to the other workings of the MacNamara.

Superintendent Hass stated that the rich vein had not been thoroughly prospected and that future developments might lead to the high-grade streak showing an increased width. The 800-foot level is the deepest workings in the MacNamara, and the opening of pay ore on this level is of great importance to the company. In fact it means that a new era has arrived in the operating of the mine, and future development work will be watched with interest.

The quartz vein was opened up in the extension property several years ago but was never prospected. In this property it was encountered at a depth of 770 feet and of practically the same width according to the drift.

HUMOR AND WIT ON THE PROGRAM AT THE BUTLER

MOVING PICTURES FOR TONIGHT WILL BE APPRECIATED BY PATRONS.

The program of the Butler theater today is an excellent one in that it consists of a great deal of humor and wit. "The District Attorney's Triumph" is a live drama that sets the blood tingling and makes one quite agree with the girl in the case that there are heroes today as well as there were in the days of King Arthur. "The Duck Farm" is a short industrial film made on the famous duck farm at Allentown, Pa., and represents every stage in the duck's life. "How the Squirrel was Captured" is a sparkling comedy full of humorous situations. It relates how the old squirrel, seriously smitten with a young girl, is unable to get her, but he is consoled with a maiden aunt of uncertain age. "Bumptious Takes up Automobiling" is another of those miraculous escapades of the wonderful Bumptious. "The Legend of Scar Face" is the story of a crippled and deformed Indian, who by his unbounded faith in the great Spirit, is transformed and aided in his wonderful feats of daring, whereby he eventually reaches the coveted goal and wins his bride.

Especially mentioned must be made of the Butler orchestra. Mr. Goldsmith is using his best endeavors to make the orchestra one of the features of the program and he is surely succeeding in his efforts.

Marvin B. Klattenhoff, of the Baker Iron works of Los Angeles, arrived yesterday from Goldfield and departed this morning for the north. Mr. Klattenhoff is an old-time friend of Chief of Police Ed Malley and the two were quite busy exchanging old-time reminiscences.

The tin containing the drug had evidently been in salt water for some time, and the theory of the federal officials is that the opium, with a buoy attached, was thrown into the ocean from some steamer approaching the port from the orient and afterward brought ashore in some small vessel.

UTTER ROUT OF OLD GUARD PREDICTED BY ROOSEVELT

Issues Statement In Which He Claims He Will Have a Majority of 100 at Saratoga Convention.

By Associated Press.
OYSTER BAY, Sept. 22.—The utter rout of the "old guard" by Roosevelt at the Republican state convention at Saratoga is predicted today by the colonel himself. At the conclusion of a conference with half a dozen of his lieutenants, Roosevelt said:

"I think I may be reasonably safe in saying we shall have 100 majority. Although the fight, which began with the Sherman incident, the colonel refused to express any opinion as to the outcome, and none was expected from him today, but the reports here this evening convinced him it was all over but the shouting. Unless some unexpected reversal should be met he is positive the Republican organization will be forced to give ground before the progressives when the test comes at Saratoga next week.

This estimated majority is concurred in by others who attended the conference. The attitude of the Roosevelt forces towards the Taft administration was outlined by Otto Bannard. He said he believed the Saratoga convention would adopt a resolution strongly endorsing the administration of Taft and that in accordance with the president's expressed wish, no mention of any nomination in 1912 will be made.

Roosevelt declined to be drawn into a renewal of the Bellamy-Storer controversy. He declined to make any extended reply to Mrs. Storer, and confined himself to this comment:

"Four years ago, when I was president and Bellamy Storer was ambassador to Austria, all letters from me to the Storer and from them to me were published. The letters speak for themselves."

In his opinion, he added, the correspondence formed a record against which no recollection of verbal conversation could stand, and therefore the question of veracity could not be entertained.

OBJECTING TO EVERY QUESTION PROPOUNDED

ATTORNEYS ARE BATTLING IN ROUND MOUNTAIN CON-TROVERSY.

Today, the fifth since the case of J. F. Davidson versus the Round Mountain Mining company was called in the district court, shows but little progress having been made in the hearing. J. F. Davidson, the plaintiff, was summoned to the stand yesterday afternoon and during the two hours he occupied the witness chair, he answered two questions. He also answered an additional question this morning, and the greater part of this afternoon was spent in discussing the right witnesses had to replying to the fourth interrogative. Strenuous objections have resulted from each question propounded, and indications point to the case being a hard-fought one. The matter at issue now concerns the relations of Davidson with the Red Top Mining company before it was acquired by the Round Mountain Mining company.

TO INAUGURATE REFRIGERATOR CAR SERVICE DAILY

SOUTHERN PACIFIC OFFICIALS ARE NOW WORKING FOR THE CHANGE.

John A. Gill, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, who has his headquarters at Reno, was in town yesterday and today, departing this morning for the north. According to Mr. Gill's reports, the freight business of Southern Nevada is increasing, particularly that of Tonopah, and he is now laboring in an endeavor to facilitate the shipments into this city. For the last year a refrigerator car has been shipped from San Francisco and Sacramento to Tonopah and Goldfield twice a week, and it is now possible that Tonopah will receive a daily car from the coast. This will be of great benefit to the local merchants, and there is no doubt but what the new system will soon go into effect, as the present conditions warrant the change.

This was Mr. Gill's first visit to this section, and before departing for the north this morning he stated that he was agreeably surprised at the present-day showings of Tonopah. He further said that he would start to work immediately to arrange for the daily car service for this city, and expected to have all arrangements completed before many days had passed.
